THE BONDE Terre Star misinterprets THE TIMES' meaning. We would not eliminate anything from the Kansas City platform. It is one of the clearest and most forceful expressions of Democratic principles ever enunciated, and they should be loyally maintained. We don't believe there is any material difference of opinion between Tux TIMES and the Star as to the importance of the principles set forth in the national platform of the party. What we have tried to express-but it seem is, that we do not believe it would be wise to try to make the financial question overshadow all other questions is this campaign as it was made to do in 1900. The people appear to be as much interested now in the questions of trust monopoly, the remedy for it, and the government's policy and attithey were in the financial question two and four years ago; and these are certainly menacing enough to demand the this time. Let us stop splitting bairs and try to place in all public positions loyal Democrats-men who have stood by the party organization and worked to carry out its authorized expression opportunity presents itself and questions involving them arise.
